)	DEFAULT AND ORDER OF
Member No. 53134,)	INVOLUNTARY INACTIVE
)	ENROLLMENT; FURTHER ORDERS
A Member of the State Bar.)

On November 27, 2012, respondent Richard Bernard Beauchesne (respondent) failed to appear at the scheduled trial in this matter. Accordingly, the court entered respondent's default on November 28, 2012, and an order entering default was served on respondent.

Thereafter, on April 11, 2013, the Office of the Chief Trial Counsel, State Bar of California (State Bar) filed a request for an order vacating and re-entering respondent's default.

After reviewing and considering this matter, in light of the fact that respondent was not put on notice, prior to the entry of his default, of the facts and circumstance surrounding his conviction which the court would consider in determining whether respondent's misconduct involved moral turpitude or other misconduct warranting discipline, the court makes the following orders:

The court's November 28, 2012 order entering respondent's default for his failure to appear at trial and enrolling him inactive under Business and Professions Code section 6007, subdivision (e), is hereby vacated, nunc pro tunc, to November 28, 2012.

Respondent will have 10 days after service of this order to file and serve a notice of his intent to appear at trial in this matter. If respondent timely files a notice of his intent to appear at trial, the court will schedule a status conference to set trial dates in this matter. If respondent does not timely file a notice of his intent to appear at trial, the court will enter respondent's default and will order respondent's involuntary inactive enrollment under section 6007, subdivision (e) of the Business and Professions Code.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
